

Myeloma Update

Live stream from RPA Sydney - Latrobe Regional Hospital, Traralgon

Myeloma Australia would like to invite you to a regional Myeloma Update, for people living with myeloma, their families and friends. A great opportunity to learn more about myeloma from experts, while connecting with other members of your myeloma community.

This free event will be held live in Sydney, and video linked to Traralgon.

Morning tea and lunch provided. Support Nurse Laura in attendance.

Date: Friday 1st December, 2017

Time: 9:00 am – 4:00 pm

Speakers Include:

Professor Joy Ho, Haematologist
Professor Douglas Joshua, Haematologist
Dr Claire Weatherburn, Haematologist
Dr Jane Estell, Haematologist (Concord Hospital)
Dr Ashley Campbell, Haematologist Registrar
Professor Kate White, Chair Cancer Nursing
Dr Haryana Dhillon, Senior Research Fellow
John Chalmers, Clinical Psychologist

Topics Include:

Myeloma – an overview of the disease;
How do we treat myeloma;
New targeted therapies and clinical studies;
Immune approaches and research (RPA);
Learning to live well with myeloma;
Managing fatigue;

Venue: Latrobe Regional Hospital - Traralgon
School of Rural Health, Seminar Room 1
(Education Precinct – To the right of Medical Imaging in Main Hospital)
4 hours free parking at Hospital

RSVP: Monday 27th November (for catering)
Laura Jones – Myeloma Support Nurse
E: laura.jones@myeloma.org.au
Toll Free: 1300 632 100