

manage cope family Clinical support learn
MYELOMA nutrition
RESEARCH
BLOOD exercise
 trials

Multiple Myeloma Patient and Family Educational Seminar

Friday 1st December 2017

Those affected by multiple myeloma, family and friends are invited to attend the annual education day hosted by Institute of Haematology RPA.

VENUE: Andrew Love Supportive Care Centre, University Hospital, Geelong (Video link from Royal Prince Alfred Hospital, Camperdown NSW 2050)

TIME: 09.00 – 16.00 FEE: NO COST TO ATTEND

SPEAKERS INCLUDE

Professor Joy Ho, Haematologist
Professor Douglas Joshua, Haematologist
Dr Claire Weatherburn, Haematologist
Dr Jane Estell, Haematologist (Concord Hspt)
Dr Ashley Campbell, Haematology Registrar
Professor Kate White, Chair Cancer Nursing
Dr Haryana Dhillon, Senior Research Fellow
John Chalmers, Clinical Psychologist

TOPICS INCLUDE

Myeloma – overview of the disease; How do we treat myeloma
New targeted therapies and clinical studies; Immune approaches and local laboratory research (RPA)
Learning to live well with myeloma; Managing Fatigue

RSVP Essential

Email: jenny@barwonhealth.org.au

elli.foley@myeloma.org.au

Phone: 1300 632 100 or 4215 2715

